WASHINGTON SQUARE

BELLEVUE'S VIBRANT URBAN VILLAGE

Washington Square is located on 10.5 acres in the heart of Bellevue. 2 condominium towers and 26 walk-up townhomes along with Top Pot Donuts, and Shnoo Yogurt currently make up Washington Square. Originally 5 residential condo towers and a boutique hotel where planned along with a medical and commercial office building that would be located on the southeast corner of NE 8th St.

Originally slated was 150,000 sq.ft. of sidewalk restaurants and retail stores as well as an outdoor plaza. If you like to get out and meet people, shop, or just stretch your legs, this is the place for you! Top Pot Donuts, and Shnoo Yogurt, make up the main tenants in the building's retail section. The status of Allure Restaurant in Washington Square is still unknown at this time. All towers will have easy access to surrounding amenities. Prices range from the high $300,000's to over $1,000,000. This building, and complete project has gone through many changes, for the full scope call: Cherie Lang 206. 391. 2021.
